

These cupcakes are our newest guilty pleasure. We rate them to be just as delicious, if not better than those from Manhattan's famous Magnolia Bakery – the place that kicked off the cupcake craze. To guarantee your cupcakes are fresh, Lollipop Bakery makes every one to-order, so there's a minimum order requirement of one dozen. Best of all they will be delivered to your doorstep. To keep quality high, the bakery makes only four delicious flavors: Classic Chocolate, Classic Vanilla, Red Velvet, and Earl Grey. They are perfect for birthday parties, baby and bridal showers, or just an indulgent afternoon snack.
