

Heavenly Cupcakes!

Are you on a diet? Yes? Then don't read this. Seriously, don't. Because we've found the sweetest little cupcake factory in town! Remember the scene in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, where they enter Willy Wonka's factory and find that everything is edible. Well, this is what Lollipop Bakery's cupcakes remind me of. They're brightly coloured with swirly icing, and sparkly-edible glitter on top. They almost look too good to eat. Almost. I devoured 2 with one cup of coffee, and am now eyeing up a third. This is bad. But Lexie from the Lollipop Bakery is not complaining. Since setting up her yummy little business in Beijing, the orders have been rolling in. Well, of course they are, this is the ONLY cupcake business in Beijing. For fancy tea parties, pretty treats for friends and loved ones, weddings and special occasions, Lexie can whip you up a set of beautifully handmade cupcakes, which come in four flavours: classic vanilla, classic chocolate, red velvet and Earl Grey, each topped with swirly buttercream frosting. For the time being, you'll have to order your cupcakes by the dozen, or one big birthday sized cake, but watch out for more Lollipop Bakery products popping up around your favourite Beijing haunts soon.

如果你正在节食中，别最好不要再继续阅读这篇文章了，真的，不是这样。因为我们会找到最甜的小蛋糕工厂在城里了。还记得电影《查理和巧克力工厂》里那部电影吗？小查理和其他幸运者进入威利·旺卡先生的巧克力工厂并找到了一切可食用的东西。Well, this is what Lollipop Bakery's cupcakes remind me of.
